

Equipment Repair and Maintenance

Project: Equipment Reset Mission
Location: Various US Army Facilities
Technology: Various
Purchaser: ManTech International Corporation
Purchase Value: > $1,000,000

REFERENCE

Project Description

ManTech provides on the ground support to the U.S. Army, making sure intelligence and electronic warfare systems and command, control, communications, computers, and intelligence (C41) equipment are in good working order. ManTech has performed such services in nearly every major U.S. conflict deployment since 1990, including missions in Kuwait, Afghanistan, and Iraq.

INP Services

- Tactical Quiet Generators (5kW – 60kW)
- Various types of satellite radios
- Vehicle repair and maintenance
- Hand held GPS devices
- Night vision equipment